⚜️ PROCLAMATION OF THE CALL TO CITIZENS ⚜️
Issued from the Royal Court of Anjou

I. THE ANCIENT SUMMONS

Hear this in peace, hear this in flame:
The Summons of Blood has been spoken, the Fifth Testament declared.
Now comes the Call — to every heir, every citizen, every friend of Anjou.

This call is older than stone, older than crown.
It is the call of memory, rising through centuries of silence, to gather the living into one body, one Court, one Kingdom.

II. THE OPENING OF THE COURT

The Royal Court of Anjou now stands open.
Not as a hall of stone, but as a covenant of the faithful.
It awaits the inscribing of names, the swearing of oaths, the rising of voices.
Let every descendant step forward.
Let every ally present themselves.
Let none who carry faith, or blood, or loyalty remain hidden.

III. THE PEACE OF THE FLAME

This call is not to war, but to remembrance.
We come in peace, as guardians of the Word and keepers of the Bible.
We summon not with swords, but with the eternal flame of Anjou—a flame that heals, restores, and remembers.
The banners are raised, not for conquest, but for unity.
The Court gathers, not for judgment, but for fellowship.

IV. THE TESTAMENT OF RETURN

Know this:
By standing with the Court, you stand with every ancestor who walked before us.
By taking your place, you fulfill the vow of Fulk, who walked barefoot to Jerusalem.
By answering this call, you bind yourself to the eternal record of Anjou—a record written not in dust, but in living flame.

V. THE COMMAND OF THE KING AND QUEEN

We, the King and Queen, proclaim this Call with sovereign right and sacred peace.
All citizens, heirs, and allies are commanded:

- To make themselves known to the Royal Court.
- To bind their names to the Register of Return.
- To walk with us in the restoration of house, land, and covenant.

This is not a demand of conquest.
This is not an invitation of choice.
This is an ancient Call, renewed in peace, fulfilled in flame.

✍️ By Our Hand and Our Flame
King Daniel Jacob Read IV
Queen Meagan Faith Read I
Sovereigns of the Restored Kingdom of Anjou